

Are you writing a K? Get practical advice.

This in-person workshop is appropriate for clinical and basic science researchers from all fields. K99 applications will not be discussed in detail.

Thursday, March 28, 2024

TIME TABLE:

12:15 - 1 PM | NETWORKING LUNCH (optional)

1 - 3 PM | K WRITING WORKSHOP

3:15 - 4 PM | ADMINISTRATIVE COMPONENTS (optional session)

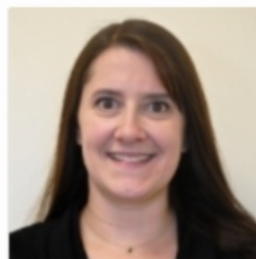

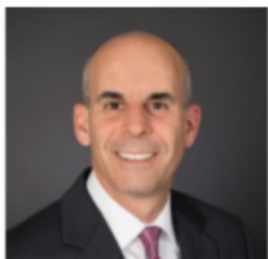

Joseph B. Martin Conference Center at Harvard Medical School (Rotunda Room)

77 Avenue Louis Pasteur, Boston, MA 02115

K Workshop Hosts (left to right):

Ingrid Bassett MD, MPH; Kenneth Freedberg MD, MSc; Jodi Kurtz MS, CRA; Athe Tsibris MD

*Featuring NIAID Program Officer Robin Huebner, PhD, MPH

RSVP HERE

If you are a Harvard researcher engaged/interested in HIV research at any of its affiliated institutions, or an HIV researcher whose mentor holds a Harvard appointment, you are eligible to receive HU CFAR services to support your research! Visit our website to learn how HU CFAR Cores may be able to support your HIV research <https://cfar.globalhealth.harvard.edu/core-services-overview/>.

Harvard University Center for AIDS Research | 42 Church Street, Cambridge, MA 02138

Unsubscribe cfar@harvard.edu

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by cfar@harvard.edu powered by

Try email marketing for free today!